Tim Jaksland joins Carmignac Gestion as fund manager for Carmignac Innovation

Tim Jaksland joins Carmignac Gestion as fund manager for Carmignac Innovation. With a proven track record in fund management, Tim Jaksland brings his expertise in the health, environment and biotechnology sectors. Tim Jaksland replaces Rajesh Varma who has left the company.

Of Danish nationality, Tim Jaksland began his career as a portfolio manager in 1991 within Danske Bank. In 2000, he became Director of Global Research for the healthcare sector for Nordea and in 2003 was appointed Director of the investment team for Danish equity.

Within the context of his research capabilities and benefiting from his Scandinavian culture, Tim Jaksland has developed several investment themes, notably within the environmental and healthcare fields. He also instigated an approach based on IT applications resulting from growing consumer demand in terms of food and industrial traceability and respect for the environment.

About Carmignac Gestion

Founded in 1989 by Edouard Carmignac, Carmignac Gestion is one of the leading independent management companies in Europe today. Its capital is held entirely by its managers and staff. In this way, the company's long-term viability is ensured by a stable shareholding structure, reflecting its spirit of independence. This fundamental value ensures the freedom required for a successful and renowned portfolio management.

With 12 billion euros of assets under management, Carmignac Gestion offers 18 funds in all asset classes – equity bond and balanced, as well as a mandate offering.

Our funds are actively distributed in 8 European countries: France, Luxembourg, Switzerland, Belgium, Italy, Germany, Spain and the Netherlands. Within the context of its international development, the company also has, since 1999, a Luxembourg subsidiary, and in 2008, two representative offices in Madrid and Milan.
