

CARMIGNAC APPOINTS BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT DIRECTOR FOR FRENCH-SPEAKING SWITZERLAND

20/11/2023

Grégoire Glotin has joined Carmignac as Business Development Director for French-speaking Switzerland.

In his role, Grégoire is responsible for initiating, developing and managing client relationships and ensuring the visibility of Carmignac's range of funds, including its equities, fixed income, diversified and alternative products. Grégoire will report to Jens-Daniel Hauske, Head of Country, Switzerland.

JENS-DANIEL HAUSKE, COMMENTS:

"I'm delighted for Grégoire to join our team in Switzerland and to support the growth of our footprint in Romandie. Grégoire has a great deal of experience and strong relationships in the market and his appointment will help further entrench our position."

Grégoire has more than 25 years' experience in finance and a strong professional network especially in the French speaking part of Switzerland. His last position was head of business development at SILEX Investment Managers. Prior to that, he actively contributed to the distribution of investment funds to a wide range of client segments at RAM Active Investments as Managing Director, Sales & Marketing for 15 years. He previously worked at EXANE and Société Générale. Grégoire holds a MBA from NEOMA Business School (Major in Market Finance).
